Throughout my career, Prizmah has provided a wealth of connections and learning opportunities for me and for the schools that I have helped lead. And now, in my first year as Head of School at Perelman, Prizmah has proven even more invaluable. I have leaned on Prizmah for personalized professional support through their Leadership Coaching program. But, what is really at the heart of Prizmah are the people on their team who bring to their work unique skill sets and shared passions all in support of the students in our schools across North America.
