Prizmah has been a great resource for TanenbaumCHAT as well as for me personally. The expertise of the Prizmah staff, and their contributions to thought leadership in Jewish education, is formidable, and the weekly Head of School calls are a tremendous opportunity to connect with professional peers. In addition, the more targeted Prizmah-guided discussions that address specific and highly relevant topics provide a valuable sounding board for new ideas.

Toronto-Area School Services

- Inside Jewish Day Schools: Book Launch and Celebration of Day Schools
- Together with The Julia and Henry Koschitzky Centre for Jewish Education of the UJA Federation of Greater Toronto, Prizmah is engaging 14 schools in the region to create a benchmarking dashboard with tuition and admissions data self-reported by each school. School leaders are then able to access this critical comparative data to inform their strategic decision making.
